Business:

Father Dan Leary announced that the Phase I Construction that encompassed the kitchen renovation is complete. Final preparations to begin Phase 2, which will be the renovation of the existing 2800 sq ft multipurpose room and a 1515 sq ft addition, are underway. Frank Watkins provided a detailed update on all preparations and reviewed the plans with the Council. Funds for Phase 2 have been obtained through the Capital Campaign and Archdiocesan approval to begin this phase of construction will be requested by letter in late December. Once approval is received, permit approval will be sought and four bids will requested. This step is anticipated in mid-January. Construction could begin in early Spring.

Father Dan Leary reviewed the 2018 parish expenses through November 30, 2018 which is consistent with the budget. Sue Sheehan reviewed the school enrollment of 333 students (pre-K through 8th grade) and stated that the Early Learning Center is operating at full capacity.

Father Dan Leary announced that best-selling author and speaker Immaculee Ilibagiza will come speak at the parish on Tuesday, February 26 about her experience as a Rwandan genocide survivor and her message of healing, faith, and forgiveness. Father Garvin Augustine will come speak during Lent on Monday, March 11. Father is considering another speaker in December 2019.
